In the bril - liance of Thy glo - ry, dark - est night is bright as day;
Thou, O LORD, has searched and known me, when I rest and when I rise; shad - ows flee the path be - fore me, when thy wis - dom lights my way.

 not a sing - le thought I cher - ish is a sec - ret from Thine eyes.

27

Thou who knit my parts to - geth - er, knew my life be - fore my birth, Search, O LORD, my heart's am - bi - tions, thoughts my mouth would dare not say; sees my faults, yet trusts my pro - mise far be - yond my feeble worth.

31

 judge with mer - cy and pre - serve me in the ev - er - last - ing way.
